Trans Industrial Safety Training supplies the motorcycles for the course.

Any weather related delays will be dealt with by: making up the training time during the course, at the end of the course, or scheduled at a later date, to be determined by Trans Industrial and the Instructors.

No refunds after booked course commencement date. Any dates or times missed by students during the training period are non-refundable. Substitutions are not allowed. Any student may be asked to terminate training if they are deemed unsafe. This includes multiple 'dropping' of the motorcycle. The final decision is determined by the Lead Instructors and/or General Manager. NO REFUNDS AFTER TRAINING BEGINS

Training times listed are approximate. The course is approximately 20-21 hours long.

You must attend the in-class portion in addition to the on-course training to consider the course completed.

The student must attend and successfully complete the entire course, and pass the MOST test to receive a certificate.

The course does not include SGI License examinations for your Class M Endorsement.

Course times *(unless otherwise advised)

Weekend courses are Saturday/Sunday 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM “practical portion”.
The live-stream “in-class” will be conducted on the Wednesday prior to your course from 6pm to 9pm

Students must provide their own:

- ✓ DOT approved helmet, plus eye protection
- ✓ Durable jacket (leather or jean preferred)
- ✓ Full length pants (i.e. blue jeans, etc.)
- ✓ Gloves that cover and protect the wrists and fingertips
- ✓ Motorcycle or rubber soled boots – that cover your ankles (no cowboy boots, no leather soles). Steel toed boots will be accepted, however, please note that a steel toed boot can hinder your ability to use the foot-shift lever on the motorcycle.

Students should:

- ✓ Bring something to drink
- ✓ Bring a lawn chair
- ✓ Try to be at the course 10 – 15 minutes before the course start time
- ✓ Bringing rain gear is always a good idea. So is sunscreen and bug spray.
- ✓ There is a 1 hour lunch break on the Saturday and Sunday. There are restaurants nearby or you can bring a lunch.
